- ✓ Altai biotechnology center

Invite you to participate in

XIX international scientific-practical conference "Problems of botany of South Siberia and Mongolia"

1 - 5 June 2020

(Altai Krai, Barnaul)

The purpose of the conference is to engage the scientific community in discussing the botanical problems of South Siberia, Mongolia, and adjacent areas, share botanical research, and assess the practical applications of this research.

We offer online participation in the upcoming conference. This remote approach can help you to present your materials, listen to other colleagues, share your ideas, and ask questions.

During the conference, we usually offers some nature excursions in Altai Krai. The photos of our previous nature trips you can see on the web-site <http://konf.asu.ru/botany-altai/>

Subsequent to the conference, we publish the scientific proceedings in the Russian Science Citation Index (РИНЦ, (elibrary.ru impact factor – 0.106 in 2018) and in ELS ASU (elibrary.asu.ru), published annually. We accept for original research for publication up to 5 pages in length.

We are also pleased to announce that from last year, our journal "Problems of botany of South Siberia and Mongolia" is published online and all publishes articles get DOI. Previous journals are accessible here <http://journal.asu.ru/bpssm>
